

Intel Scholarship for Women in Technology

$5,000 Scholarships Available

The Intel Scholarship for Women in Technology Program awards up to 25 scholarships to female students in Ohio pursuing a relevant Associate degree or a 1-year Certificate in the semiconductor manufacturing industry.

Intel is investing more than $20B in the construction of two leading-edge chip factory in Licking County, OH. This factory will produce advanced semiconductors which will generate 3,000 new Intel jobs. Plan your future in STEM to get prepared to join the most innovative and exciting industry in Ohio.

To learn more and apply, scan the QR code or visit learnmore.scholarsapply.org/intel-women

Deadline:
February 19, 2024

Applicants must meet all the following criteria:

- Be a high school senior or graduate or currently enrolled undergraduate
- Plan to enroll in full-time undergraduate study at an accredited two-year Community/Technical College or University offering two-year degrees in the state of Ohio for the entire upcoming 2024-2025 academic year
- Self-identify as female
- Must be a United States (U.S.) citizen and/or be eligible to legally work in the U.S.
- Be full-time students pursuing a relevant Associate degree or a 1-year Certificate in the semiconductor manufacturing industry during the 2024-2025 academic year. Eligible programs include but are not limited to:

- One-year Semiconductor Certificate
- Electrical/Electronic Engineering Technology AAS
- Electro-Mechanical Engineering Technology AAS
- Engineering Technology AAS
- Mechatronics/Robotics/Automation Engineering Technology AAS
- Mechanical Engineering Technology AAS

- Microelectronics Associate degree
- Computer Engineering Technology AAS (excludes Software centric majors)
- Chemistry or Agricultural Sciences Associate degree
- Equipment maintenance related Associate degree
- Or other relevant STEM degrees excluding medical/veterinarian/software fields