

High School Completion Status

Federal financial aid applicants must be able to verify high school completion by submitting a copy of a high school diploma, GED certificate or other qualifying documentation. According to your answer on your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), you indicated that you did not complete high school or its equivalent. Submit one of the following documents to the Financial Aid Office.

SECTION A: Student Information
Name:	Student ID Number:
Address:	City:	State:	Zip:
Primary Phone:
SECTION B: Documents Provide one of the following documents to indicate the student's high school completion status when the student begins college:
☐ A copy of the student's high school	•
For students who completed seco leaving certificate".	ndary education in a foreign	country, a copy of the "se	econdary school
\square A copy of the student's final official high school transcript that shows the date of graduation.
A state certificate or transcript received that the State recognizes as the equathorized examination).
An academic transcript that indicate acceptable for full credit toward a		completed at least a two	-year program that is
For a student who was homeschool school completion credential for hequivalent), a copy of that creden	nomeschooling (other than a	•	_
For a student who was homeschood a secondary school completion or recognized equivalent), a transcript the secondary school courses the completed a secondary school ed	edential for homeschooling of the equivalent, signed student completed and inclu	(other than a high school by the student's parent or udes a statement that the	diploma or its r guardian, that lists
SECTION C: Certification Statem I certify that all of the information on of my knowledge. Furthermore, I affir documentation.	this form and accompanying
Student Signature:		Date:

Acceptable signature formats include hand-written signatures, signatures made using a stylus or finger or an image representation of your signature.