Financial Aid

To apply for federal grants, loans and work-study positions, complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid \(FAFSA\) at <https://studentaid.gov>. By filing the FAFSA, you will be considered for all aid for which you might be eligible. The FAFSA is available in October for the following financial aid year that begins with Fall semester. Be sure to list Clark State's federal school code 004852, so your application information is sent to our Financial Aid Office for review and processing.

Clark State Foundation Scholarships

There are more than 50 scholarships offered through the Clark State Foundation. Scholarships may be awarded for Summer, Fall and/or Spring semesters. Students need to complete just one online application. In order to be considered for scholarships, students must complete a new general application for each application period.

For application dates please visit: <https://www.clarkstate.edu/financial-aid/scholarships/>

Clark State does not mail paper statements, but you can view and download an electronic statement on Self-Service at any time. You can also find valuable information regarding your tuition and fees, financial aid status and payment options in the Student Finance section of Self-Service. To access Self-Service log into the myClarkState portal and click on "Self-Service" in the quick links box.

Tuition rates can be found on our Clark State website under Admissions tab "Tuition and Fees". Be aware that these fees are subject to change at any time.
